DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 1-2, 11-12, 22-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Okamori et al.

Okamori et al. discloses a projection device comprising :

a uniformizing device (3) in the form of a rod integrator having it's entrance surface conjugated with a light source including a condensing lens (21), the exit plane of the rod being analogous to that of a plane to be illuminated (Column 6 Lines 15-18);

a reflection optical system (5) for imaging the exit plane on the surface to be illuminated and having an optical power;

a projection optical system (8).

As noted in column 2 Lines 1-6, the invention may be extended to full color projection by the use of a rotary color filter preceding the light modulator, as is known in the art.

As illustrated in figure 22, the projector may be used in rear projection units, i.e. having a transmissive screen.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Okamori et al. in view of Baba et al or Sunaga.

Okamori et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed but does not teach the use of reflection means as a projection means.

Baba and Sunaga teach the use of reflection means as projection means as a substitute for more common projection lens means.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to modify the device of Okamori et al. by the substitution of projection mirrors for projection lenses in order to compensate for aberrations and reduce the necessary projection optical path length.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 3-10, 13-20, 24-25 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 1/24/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that the "reflection optical system" of Okamori et al. does not consist of only of reflective surfaces having optical power is unpersuasive because the "reflection optical system" in Okamori et al. is interpreted to consist of only surface (5) which is a reflective element with optical power. Lens (4) is not interpreted to form a part of the "reflection optical system" but rather acts upon the light from the uniforming optical system before impingement on the "reflection optical system".

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

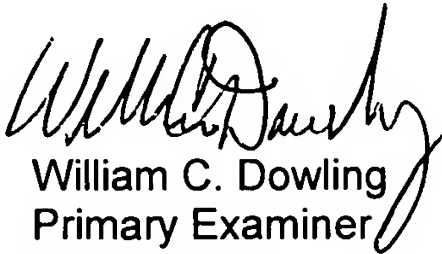

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
